Yes, at last it is here again. The fourteenth annual Student-Faculty Get-together, better known as Skit Night, is finally here. More eagerly awaited than Christmas, New Year's or Easter, this gala evening each year produces beacoup in the way of laughs, merriment, and general good spirits. This year promises to hold tradition sacred with many fine things in the offing. We hear via the program committee that tonight we are going to be entertained by a foreign group. They said it was straight from Hungary... or did they say "strictly from hunger"... hmm. Oh well, there's others.

In ye olden days gone bye, generous refreshments (beautiful buckets of beer) were served on the premises and a lovely time was had by all (signed your club reporter), but (alack and alas) this fine tradition has been ruled out. The spirit has not gone, however, so whaddayasay, LET'S HAVE A PARTEE!

STUDENT-FACULTY MEETING

The Student-Faculty Council met on Monday, March 29, at the Red Lion Grill.

It was decided at this meeting that the Skit is to be handled by the fraternities as a campus party affair in a manner similar to that of last year.

Consideration was given for changes which were thought would improve the regulations of the Honor Council, and a committee consisting of Drs. Ahlquist and O'Rear, Representatives Cheney and Hef fernan was appointed to formulate a Code of Rules of Procedure and Ethics to guide the operation of the Honor Council. It was furthermore agreed that L. S. McGinnis would be asked to assist this committee.

Valuable suggestions and recommendations for changes and improvements in certain clinical courses were discussed, as well as a request that the Business Office keep sufficient funds on hand to cash checks for students.

Dr. O'Rear announced a tentative plan for physical examinations for changes effected will be reported back to the Student-Faculty Council.

CRAWFORD W. LONG MEMORIAL PLANNED

Plans for the Crawford W. Long Memorial Museum, to be built in Jefferson, Ga., are revealed in the March issue of the Journal of the Medical Association of Georgia.

The article, "In Memoriam to Pain," states that the museum will be constructed on the site where Dr. Long first used ether anesthesia. It was revealed that the museum will be constructed on the site where Dr. Long first used ether anesthesia 112 years ago—March, 1842—to remove two small tumors from the...

GROUSERS

Two disgruntled farmers liked to grouse to each other.

"Never did see hay grow so short as mine this summer," sighed one.

"You think yours is short," answered the other, "I had to later mine to mow it!"
