6.11 Criminal Conviction Disclosure Policy for Students

Policy 6.11
Volume 6 Student Services
Chapter 11 Criminal Conviction Disclosure Policy for Students
Responsible Office: Campus Life Services
Originally issued: April 27, 1995

Policy Statement

Students are required, on a continuing basis, to disclose in writing to their Dean or the Director of Campus Life Services any criminal convictions that occur since the disclosure they completed with their application for admission. Criminal convictions include adjudication of guilt by a jury or judge for any crime. Minor traffic offenses are not included, but “no contest” pleas, first-offender treatment, convictions under appeal, and convictions that have been pardoned are included. Disclosures should be made within 30 days of conviction.

Reason For Policy

Georgia Health Sciences University prepares students for professions that require professional licensure. Students who have been convicted of certain types of criminal activity may be ineligible for a professional license or for employment with a state agency. In addition, the institution is required to collect and publish an annual security report in accordance with the Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act of 1990.
Entities Affected By This Policy

All students at Georgia Health Sciences University are affected by this policy. This includes students physically taking classes on the Augusta campus of Georgia Health Sciences University as well as students enrolled in distance education or online classes.

Who Should Read This Policy

All students at Georgia Health Sciences University must observe this policy. The Director of Campus Life Services and Deans of all the Colleges at Georgia Health Sciences University must be aware of this policy.
