Definitions:

These definitions apply to these terms as they are used in this policy:

Academic Tenure

Academic tenure refers to the conditions and guarantees that apply to a faculty member's employment, in particular the protection from involuntary discharge from, or termination of, employment and from imposition of serious sanctions, except upon grounds and in accordance with procedures set forth in this policy.

Overview

This policy and the following policies may be used for guidance in the recruitment of faculty as well as for individual faculty and their chairs in projecting career development plans. As a faculty member determines needs for advancement, specific criteria related to individual colleges may be helpful for additional support.

The college level committee(s) on Faculty Appointment, Development, Promotion, and Tenure (FADPT) reviews, makes recommendations, and monitors policies and procedures at the college and departmental levels. The University Faculty Senate FADPT & Post-Tenure Subcommittee of the Faculty Governance Committee reviews and offers comments on relevant policies and procedures of all colleges and faculties within the Georgia Health Sciences University.

Process/Procedures
